Scandinavian ChemoTech AB is strengthening its Indian operations with former executive from Getinge Group

Scandinavian ChemoTech AB (public limited company) is strengthening the medical technology leadership skills of its Indian subsidiary by appointing Mr. Ashim Purohit as new Chairman of the Board. Mr. Purohit has a long experience in the medical device industry and has recently left Getinge Group after thirteen successful years.

“The addition of Mr. Purohit’s knowledgeable and successful experience will be very important both for the Indian operations as well as for the entire ChemoTech group. Mr. Purohit has the right network and leadership skills to take us to the next level”, says Mohan Frick, Co-Founder and CEO of ChemoTech.

“I am grateful to be invited as the Chairman of the board in ChemoTech’s Indian Subsidiary. After working more than a quarter of a century in Healthcare, this allows me to contribute in my area of passion driving novel therapies and techniques in the Healthcare and Life Sciences space. With this role as Chairman of Scandinavian MediTech Plc. I am hoping to contribute in a positive way to the field of Oncology”, says Mr. Ashim Purohit.
